Thanks to each and every one of you for sharing with us your amazing children. The end of the year has come much too soon. This is a bittersweet time for the staff... saying good bye is always hard. We already look forward to the fall when we see our returning friends. Our other friends who are moving on will always have a special place in our hearts. Thank you to all of you, who generously brought in snacks, supplies and who supported us in so many thoughtful and caring ways. We wish you a happy, healthy, and really fun summer!
