

Today's Anthem: You Raise Me Up

When I am down, and oh, my soul, so weary,
when troubles come, and my heart burdened be,
then I am still and wait here in the silence,
until you come and sit awhile with me.

You raise me up so I can stand on mountains.

You raise me up to walk on stormy seas.

I am strong when I am on your shoulders.

You raise me up to more than I can be.

You raise me up so I can stand on mountains.

You raise me up to walk on stormy seas.

I am strong when I am on your shoulders.

You raise me up to more than I can be.

You raise me up so I can stand on mountains.

You raise me up to walk on stormy seas.

I am strong when I am on your shoulders.

You raise me up to more than I can be.

You raise me up so I can stand on mountains.

You raise me up to walk on stormy seas.

I am strong when I am on your shoulders.

You raise me up to more than I can be.

You raise me up to more than I can be.

Thank you so much to Cathy Niedzwiecki for all her time and hard work in making this happen!!
Cathy's vision and generosity in doing this is such a gift to Luther Memorial!!

BookBinders' next read will be one that guarantees to speak to one and all. "In What's So Amazing About Grace, Philip Yancey explores grace at the street level. If grace is God's love for the undeserving, he asks, then what does it look like in action? And if Christians are its sole dispensers, then how are we doing at lavishing grace on a world that knows far more of cruelty and forgiveness than it does of mercy? ...Yancy offers compelling, true portraits of grace's life-changing power. And challenges us to become living answers to a world that desperately wants to know, What's So Amazing About Grace?"

Pick up a copy today and delve into this engaging read and gather together March 10th in Mary's Place at 10:30-11:30.
